

Don't approve relaxation of ownership rules. We already have too little diversity of opinion on TV, radio and in the press. The lower and middle classes of this country are already being shafted badly by big corporations of many kinds; the media especially should not be controlled by a few huge companies.